Both Sides of the Question

Although the great store is "in the swim," beating all previous records from day to day, yet there's no denying the fact that, generally speaking, this has been a backward season. Manufacturers of woollens are dead sore. The late duplicate orders they had expected and prepared for are not coming

$ 10 in, as small manufacturers are closely hugging the shore. This is the opportunity that men with spot cash and the courage to back their judgment have been looking for. We can buy almost at our own figures, provided we buy largely and pay cash. This is what we have done, and done so well that we are now enabled to place on sale over twenty styles of that if we had made up a month ago we could not sell for less than from $13.50 to $15 each. They are made from all-wool fabrics in sack and cutaway styles. They come in plaids, in stripes, and in quiet mixtures. You can't find any such Suits elsewhere for less than from $15 to $18. Come and see them. You needn't buy.

of Blarney and Athlone Tweeds, Bannochburn Cheviots, West-of-England Cassimeres, and the best American fabrics made up into Suits that will put Merchant Tailoring in the background, and that from the same causes we are enabled now to sell at FIFTEEN DOLLARS A SUIT.

Just think of it! Suits that if we had made up a month earlier we---EVEN WE--- couldn't sell for less than from $18 to $22 each. Suits that'll fit well

$ 15 and wear well. Suits that'll bring us credit and give you satisfaction. Suits of the good honest kind, that'll neither rip nor tear nor lose their shape. Suits of the most chaste and elegant fabrics. Can you in simple justice to yourself afford to buy your Spring Suit before seeing these. Think well before you act.

DELEGATES ELECTED.

Confederates of Virginia, and in fact of the South, had been invited to meet the Army of the Potomac in a refinion to be held at Getysburg next July, and that a committee from the Army of the Potomac would be here on the 12th of this month for the purpose of extending the invitation formally. He hoped, he said, that all representatives would bring the matter to the attention of their camps when they returned home and talk the matter over.

Comrade E. M. Henry, from Norfolk, invited the Grand Camp to Norfolk on the 17th. the memorial-hay there. The camp received the invitation with thanks.

The State Democratic Convention assembles in Norfolk at 12 M. on the 16th iostant. The work to be there done is to adopt a party platform and to choose delegates to the St. Louis Convention, electors for this State, party canvassers for the coming contest, and last and most important of all, a new Executive and State Committee.

Richmond was entitled to select thirty-nine men to speak ler annitionate at Norfolk, and men to speak her sentiments at Norfolf, and this number having been properly apportioned among the six wards of the city, the Democrats of each ward met last night to pick and choose. All the meetings were extraordinarily well aftended, and in the majority of instances the places of rendezvous—small halfs—were packed. The aspirants were many, and it not unexpectedly happened that all could not succeed. The representation agreed upon is creditable to the city, and will ardently and ably seek to promote the interests of the Commonwealth in all their votes and utterances.

Following are the proceedings:

THE BLUES AND THE GRAYS.

Here To-Day. The Washington Grays, of Philadelphia, will arrive here at 2:58 P. M. on a visit to the Blues.
They will be met by the Blues at the Byrd-

Street station and ex-orted up Seventh to Main street, down Main to Governor, up Governor to Capitol, and will there enter the grounds of the Executive Mansion and be welcomed by Governor Lee. Thence they go to Ford's Hotel (where they will be constructed) and align. This afternoon they they go to Ford's Hotel (where they will be quartered) and dine. This afternoon they will see something of the city. At night they will see something of the city. At night they will be banqueted at Sanger Hall. Early next morning they will be marched up Franklin street to the West End, where they will take the electric cars and ride to Libby Hill. From that park they proceed to Rocketts, where they will take the barree Chimborazo for Warwick Park, where they will spend the day. Friday they leave for Washington and home.

It is essential to the success of this fraternal visit that the Blues should be able to muster with full ranks. To have them employers are carnestly besought to give their President J. Thompson Brown presided, and Mr. John F. Barry, the secretary, was at his post. Mesers, Maurice B. Flynn, Thornton N. Motley, and J. F. Barry, of New York, were present in person and heid provies for their associates.

The session, which instead for about an hour and a half, was a secret one and no members of the press were admitted. Some reports were made which, it is stated, were satufactory, but there are others which were not completed and will not be for some little time yet. These cannot be made until the transfer of the electrical part of the system from the Sprague Motor Company has been made to the Passenger Company.

The following gentlemen—six from New York and as many from Richmond—were elected: James N. Smith, Henry Steers, Thornton N. Motley, James M. Motley, Mau-rice B. Flyun, John F. Barry, New York; J. Thompson Brown, Valentine Hachler, Jr., Frederick C. Brauer, Charles L. Todd, Wil-liam H. Scott, William R. Trigg, Richmond,
